He Played Baseball

His Home Run Hit Captured the Heart of an Heiress.

It was a close and exciting came. Eight innings had been played, and the score stood a tie. Memphishad retired its opponent in the ninth inning without scoring. Memphis was at the bat. Two men were out. Two strikes had been called upon the man at the bat. The next ball pitched came straight toward him. Then it took a sudden curve. He swung his bat. Would he miss it? The excitement was painful. There was a quick, short stroke. Ah! he has hit the ball. Away high in the air it sails. See, the center fielder is chasing it. The spectators hold their breath. Suddenly there is one tumultuous shout. The ball has gone far over the bead of the fielder, who is chasing it. Around the bases speeds the batter. He touches the home plate and the victory is won. Bouquets are showered upon him. He looks up just in time to see a lovely girl take a bunch of roses and throw them at his feet. As he gracefully pieze them up their eyes meet. A humble base ball player has captured a rich beiress. Go," she says to him two weeks later, 'go to the Misfit Clothing Parlors, 262 Second street, and order your wedding suit." She was rich in common sense as well as wealth.
